Reid Says Risk-Taker Needed to Inject New Life Into BusinessThe risk-taker—American progress builder of the past—is the necessary serum needed to inject new life into the Nation's business of tomorrow, Thomas R. Reid, chairman of the National Military Establishment's Personal Policy Board, declared yesterday.Mr. Reid, who is also vice president of the McCormick Co., Inc., Baltimore, addressed the 29th annual meeting of the Washington Better Business Bureau at the Mayflower Hotel.Pointing out that America has been built by the enterprisers—the risk-takers who took a chance —he warned that:"The new generation of college graduates think in terms of security rather than risk-taking.
"There is a growing tendency on the part of the people to turn increasingly to Government for all their needs. This is a new trend which reverses the time-honored American concept that a man earns his way and pays for the things he needs from his earnings."He acclaimed the Better Business Bureau as a "private regulating force," illustrating how "business can police itself entirely apart from Government regulation."Ralph L. Goldsmith was re-elected chairman of the Washington Better Business Bureau.
Others re-elected are Everett J.
Boothby, vice chairman; Hubert T. Bisselle, treasurer; R. B. H.
Lyon, counsel, and Herbert J. Rich, assistant treasurer. Gerald D.
Grosner was elected chairman of the Merchandise Committee.
Claude H. Woodward was re-appointed director, and Sally P.
Muchmore, assistant director.
Mr. Goldsmith presided at the meeting.Army Deadline Extended For Ban on SegregationThe military establishment said today the deadline for the Army's submission of a new plan for ending racial segregation in its ranks has been extended to July 15.Defense Secretary Johnson originally requested the Army to come up with a new policy by yesterday, but the time was extended until July 15 at the request of Army Secretary Gray. A new antisegregation policy was set up for the Navy on June 8, and previously the Air Force had instituted a new policy.In line with its new policy to scatter its Negro personnel throughout its ranks, the Air Force announced today reassignment of 66 Negro officers stationed at Lockbourne base, Columbus, Ohio. Included was First Lt.
Charles W. Cooper, 4810 Alabama avenue S.E., who was ordered to the 88th Fighter Group at Neuberg, Germany. He is a pilot and has been with the all-Negro 332nd Fighter Wing, commanded by Col.
Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., 1721 S street N.W.HOT WEATHER HELP*Mashed Potato
